

Dear Store Manager,

Date:

I am writing to let you know my position as a consumer. I recognize that there are choices being made by leaders of companies and stores to require employees to be vaccinated or to stand for their right to chose. I want you to know that I stand for freedom of choice. If your store choses to require its employees to be vaccinated to stay employed, then I will chose to no longer do business with your store.

I am not anti-vaccine. I am pro freedom for American's to choose what they do and do not inject into their bodies. This is vitally important at this time when the proposed mandate is for a new vaccine, with a new technology and a new delivery mechanism which has had mixed side effects and complications on individuals that have largely been under-played by most of the media outlets.

I stand for freedom of choice for Americans. As a consumer, I will take a stand to only do business with businesses that stand with the rights of Americans to have freedom of choice.

Sincerely,
